A LUNCH WITH KEVIN SINFIELD MBE

From Boot Room to Board Room

Kevin Sinfield, MBE is an English former professional rugby league player who captained the Leeds Rhinos in the Super League. An England captain, his usual position was Loose forward, although he could cover both Stand-off and Hooker. Sinfield played his entire professional career with Leeds and is one of the most successful players in Super League history, having captained the team to seven Super League championships and two Challenge Cup successes as well as achieving individual accolades as winner of the Lance Todd Trophy, Harry Sunderland Trophy twice and the Golden Boot.
